

Another Train By Mary Gauthier/ Ben Glover

Intro: G/D/Am/C

Verse I

G D
Got me an apartment on the East Side

Am C
1411 13th Street

G D
I walk on the tracks by the Cumberland River

Am C
Over the bridge past lover's leap

G D Am C
I'm moving on, through the pain, through the pain

G D Am C
Waiting on another train, another train

Verse II

G D
Tore a hole in the pocket of the jacket you bought me

Am C
In that thrift store in Camden Town

G D
Behind the station you wrapped your arms 'round me

Am C
You built me up and tore me down

G D Am C
I'm moving on, through the pain, through the pain

G D Am C
Waiting on another train, another train

Verse III

G D
December sunset I can see my breath
Am C
Disappear in the cold winter night
G D
Bums gathering driftwood by the river
Am C
Whistle blows a lonesome cry

G D Am C
I'm moving on, through the pain, through the pain
G D Am C
Waiting on another train, another train

G D Am C
I'm moving on, through the pain, through the pain
G D Am C
Waiting on another train, another train
G
There'll be another train
