

“Still on the Ride” by Mary Gauthier and Josh Geartz

INTRO: A /// Bm /// E /// A ///

A Bm
Looking back now, who the hell knows

E A
Where the soul of a dead soldier goes

Bm
Guardian angels, maybe they're true

E A
My guardian angel, maybe it's you

E A
I shouldn't be here, you shouldn't be gone

E A
But it's not up to me who dies and who carries on

Bm
I sit in my room, I close my eyes

E A
Me and my guardian angel -- we're still on the ride

INTERLUDE: A /// Bm /// E /// A ///

Bm

Got holes in my eardrums, bruises and clots

E

A

Double vision and my stomach's in knots

Bm

Got pain in my fingers, I hurt from my head to my toes

E

A

I wake up feeling like I'm ninety years old

E

A

I shouldn't be here, you shouldn't be gone

E

A

But it's not up to me who dies and who carries on

Bm

I sit in my room, I close my eyes

E

A

Me and my guardian angel -- we're still on the ride

INTERLUDE: A /// Bm /// E /// A ///

Bm

You were my brother, you were more than a friend

E

A

You were family to me right up 'til the end

Bm

You're still with me now, I feel you I know

E

A

You're pushing me forward and you'll never let go

E

A

I shouldn't be here, you shouldn't be gone

E

A

But it's not up to me who dies and who carries on

Bm

I sit in my room, I close my eyes

E

A

Me and my guardian angel -- we're still on the ride

(repeat chorus)

Tag:

E

A

Me and my guardian angel -- we're still on the ride

OUTRO: A //// Bm //// E //// A ////